

DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt of the amendment filed 12/18/2009 is acknowledged. Claims 39-61 and 67-76 are presented to be examined upon their merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

The claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Re Claim 40 and 41: Is not functional descriptive material because it merely defines a transaction fee, but seems to play no part in the function of the invention per se [see MPEP 2106.01].

Re claims 44 and 46: Instruction and the invoice itself is not being functionally tied to conducting a transaction. it is also uncertain what device is being used in claim 43 to be able to receive an electronic invoice. For example the invoice can be received electronically and printed over a fax machine. Thus the device does not change its behavior by processing functions found on the invoice.

Re claim 72: it is not clear how the costs of goods that are sold changes the functionality of the system. The claim is being interpreted as functionally descriptive material.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. . Claims 40, 41, 44, 46 and 72 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: structures that carry out the functions as required by 35 USC 101 rejections cited above.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 39, 42, 43 , 45, 47-61 and 67-71 and 73-76 are allowed.

6. Claims 40, 41, 44, 46 and 72 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
